SUIT FILED BY SOUTH END RESIDENTS AGAINST GAS CORP

R. L. Simpson, attorney, filed a memorandum in the office of the Circuit Court of Princess Anne County in which a suit is instituted by C. H. Driskill, Frank Gresham and Margaret R. Klepper who "sue for themselves and for the benefit of all persons similarly situated who are owners of lots in ... Pinewood Park." The defendants named in this suit are R. A. Cassett, Virginia Beach Gas Corporation, Town of Virginia Beach and C. F. Nicholson, supervising engineer of the Town of Virginia Beach.

The suit is made returnable until June 16 at which time a bill of complaint will be filed, Mr. Simpson stated.

This suit is the outcome of a controversy as to the location of the new Virginia Beach Gas Corp. which plant is being located at the west end of block 9 on Cypress and Norfolk Avenues. This particular section being originally zoned and sold for residential section until a recommendation of the Zoning Board caused the rezoning of the block and changed the section in question to a commercial district.

In 1917 Mr. Ware transferred from Norfolk Navy Yard to the Engineer Office at Fort Story where he served until 1941. Mr. Ware was employed in the Engineer office at Fort Monroe, Va. from 1941 to 1945. In 1945 Mr. Ware returned to Fort Story where he now holds the position of Harbor Defense Fortification Engineer. ## A.A.A. Monthly Traffic Safety Lesson Released

One out of four deaths to children in the 5 to 14 age group during 1945 was directly due to the fact that the youngster was playing in the roadway. John B. Dey, vice president of the Tidewater Automobile Association said today in announcing distribution to schools here of the May A.A.A. Traffic Safety Lesson posters and lesson which admonish children to PLAY AWAY FROM TRAFFIC.

The poster, drawn by William Ashwood, age 13, of Roosevelt High School, Minneapolis, Minn., was a first prize winner in the Second National A.A.A. Traffic Safety Poster Contest, sponsored by the American Automobile Association and affiliated automobile clubs. Mr. Dey said.

"Only one other unsafe practice of the elementary school child took a higher toll than playing in the street and that practice was crossing between intersections. Playing in the roadway, as children's second worst traffic safety fault deserves close attention, as summer approaches and schools turn out their flocks of energetic youth who are more intent on the progress of the game than where the game is played.

"Drivers should weight the thought carefully that at any time a child may dart from between parked cars, at any hour, at any place. So they must govern their speed accordingly. Teachers, before releasing their charges for the summer's vacation, should remind the youngsters that accidents — traffic and others — annually cause the death of more than three times as many children as does the disease which took the largest toll. Parents are reminded that they are duty-bound during the summer, more than ever, to take over the duties of school teachers and members of the School Safety Patrol, continually reminding children of the basic traffic safety rules which they must follow if they desire to enjoy a happy summer vacation."

Record Crowd Attends Council Meeting; Demand Action

An unprecedented number of citizens turned out for the June meeting of the Town Council on Monday evening and demanded adjournment from the Town Hall to the auditorium at the USO Club when the Council Chamber overflowed.

The newly installed parking meters precipitated the large attendance in protest of the action of the Town in their installation without giving business men and hotels sufficient time to consider the feasibility of the installation.

If a deadlock that lasted almost two hours after other business on the docket had consumed approximately the same time, councilmen remained adamant in their refusal to rescind the ordinance authorizing installation of the meters or to pass new legislation on outlawing them. Opponents headed by the Virginia Beach Hotel Association and joined, according to R. E. Derrins, president, by representatives of all other hotels and many other business establishments at the resort, remained equally adamant in their refusal to concede defeat.

Petition Presented

Carol Norman, attorney representing the hotel association, presented a petition signed, he said, by 250 persons in the course of Monday afternoon, with many others yet to be solicited. The petition called for the immediate removal of the meters from all streets of the town setting forth that the petitioners were "motivated ... by firm conviction, based on tangible evidence that the installation of these meters is having and will have an increasingly detrimental effect upon Virginia Beach."

Carol Norman Wins Radio Title And Trip South

Miss Carol Norman, niece of Mrs. Badie Fisher, of Virginia Beach, has just been awarded WRNL Radio Queen for 1947.

The award was made after Carol participated in a contest which lasted from May 11 to June 1, in which approximately 50 young ladies participated for the title.

The contest in which Carol participated was conducted in cooperation with the International Radio Club of Miami and the C. S. Tourist Commission. She will be given an all-expense trip to Miami Beach and Cuba July 10 thru 12 where she will participate among 24 other Southern radio station winners for the title of Radio Queen of the South. A round of sightseeing and entertaining will be enjoyed by all contestants.

A native of Richmond, Carol has spent almost all of her summers at Virginia Beach with her aunt, Mrs. Fisher, and is well known among the younger set of the Beach. She will sing in the choir of the Virginia Beach Methodist Church this summer when she returns from her southern trip.

Mrs. C. A. Hancock of Huntington, W. Va. is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Russell Gimbert on Laskin Road.

H. Warfield Leeke - Mayor

ness establishments at the resort, remained equally adamant in their refusal to concede defeat.

Petition Presented

ould Rumble, attorney representing the hotel association, presented a petition signed, he said, by 250 persons in the course of Monday afternoon, with many others yet to be solicited. The petition called for the immediate removal of the meters from all streets of the town setting forth that the petitioners were "motivated ... by firm conviction, based on tangible evidence that the installation of these meters is having and will have an increasingly detrimental effect upon Virginia Beach."

The petition cited, in evidence that a number of cancellations of reservations have been received as a result of the guests' annoyance at the prospect of limited meter-parking.

No Place To Unload Guests

Rumble stated in his opening remarks, that the hotel operators found themselves in the position of having no place for guests to load and unload their cars.

Several of the hotel operators and merchants joined in the general protest advocating removal of the meters. Frank Booker, operator of the Courtney Terrace, chaired the Council for having installed the meters over the protest of the citizens, saying that the large crowd in attendance was a rebuke to the councilmen of the town.

Clyde Nicholson, town engineer, upheld the council's action, saying that the meters were a part of the plan of the town and state to provide traffic controls.

To Poll Business Men

The deadlock was broken only after it was agreed that a poll would be taken of Virginia Beach members of the Better Business Association of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County to determine whether or not a majority of the members favored removal of the meters. It was agreed that the street committee would confer with the business group and would bring their findings and recommendations to a meeting Friday night, June 6, in the USO auditorium, at which a final decision would be made.

Earlier, in what appeared to be an effort on the part of some of the council to regain control of the reins of authority seized by Mayor H. Warfield Leeke recently when he ordered the closing of all gambling establishments in a special council session, a "planning commission" was appointed over the mayor's protest. Leeke objected on the grounds that the question was not properly docketed for this meeting in accordance with charter provisions. Council overrode the mayor's objection, naming Mrs. G. R. Gar, C. T. Whitehead, R. O. Beasley, George Mansson, R. L. Page, R. L. Simpson, Louis Dickens, W. F. Patton, Clyde Nicholson and Worth Petty. The purpose of the commission was not stated.

R. A. Cassett, president of the Virginia Beach Gas Company, asked for a clarification of the effect the rescinding of a recent ordinance, passed by the council, would have upon his franchise grant to supply gas to Virginia Beach. Leeke asked Clerk R. L. Jones whether or not the corporation were in compliance with the terms of their contract and, upon being told that they were, stated that he could see no reason why rescinding the ordinance should have any effect on the original franchise agreement.

In an interview following adjournment of the council session, Leeke was asked to state his position regarding the parking meter controversy. "I endorsed the meters because I thought they might help to relieve congestion, and I still think they should be given a trial," he said, "but regardless of my personal opinion, if the people don't want them, I see no reason why they should have to have them."

Other Business

An ordinance was heard on first reading relative to placing a tax on out of town laundry establishments doing business in the Beach. Hugh Meredith also requested consideration on widening 22nd St. The matter was referred to the proper committee for consideration. Mayor Leeke requested the secretary to submit to his office a copy of the minutes of each council meeting by the Wednesday following the meeting. Mayor Leeke feels that in this way he will have a permanent record of all business transacted in his files for reference.

On motion of J. E. Hahstead, they decided to create a Beautification Commission, members to be announced at a later date.

Elected Dr. H. A. Shoen as humane officer, at a salary of $50 per month.

Elected "Dusty" Hinnant as captain of the Virginia Beach patrol.

AN EVIL NEWSPAPER PRACTICE

One of these days we hope the newspapers of the nation will voluntarily abandon the practice of publicizing the fact that certain law violators happen to be veterans.

With approximately 17,000,000 males with military service records there is certainly no news value in the information that a culprit of the law, particularly in the 20-35 age bracket, wore a uniform during the war.

Among men of military age, the number of veterans is probably no greater than the number of men with red hair, or freckles or bushy eyebrows.

Yet no editor would think of writing "Police today Joe Doakes, age 25, and red haired, etc." There is as little real news in this statement as in the announcement that "Police today arrested Joe Doakes, 25-year-old World War II veteran, etc."

Very likely, most editors who are guilty of this indirect slander of all veterans are themselves veterans, or the fathers of sons who served in the Armed Forces. But for some strange reason they refuse to understand that public opinion is influenced by this practice of putting a veteran label on those individuals with military records who tangle with the law. People generally are beginning to suspect that war veterans are mainly responsible for the current crime wave.

If editors simultaneously identify non-veterans who are caught in the coils of the law then perhaps newspaper readers would realize that veterans are not guilty of all the crimes being committed. But when editors publicize only those defendants who happen to be veterans, the reading public is encouraged to think that veterans as a class have little respect for law and order.

The existence of a free press in America is one of those democratic ideals for which veterans risk their lives. No clear thinking veteran would suggest that editors are required by law to surrender any of their free press privileges. If this vicious practice is to be discontinued by the press in general—it must be done voluntarily. Editors themselves must recognize the harm they are doing to veterans as a group when they persist in spotlighting law violators as veterans. They should be the first to acknowledge the injustice of this policy—and the first to ridicule the growing suspicion among civilians that military service is only a training school for potential criminals.

UNEMPLOYMENT IS INCREASING

Independent of the struggles between employers and labor leaders there is a drop in employment in Washington, D. C. One reason is that labor bosses have been losing their popularity while the Administration and Congress have been using their best efforts to correct the evils that have been responsible for thousands of strikes. It is also perfectly evident that the strikers have lost more in wages the past year than they have made up by increases of pay.

According to reliable information our unemployment in the United States is about 2,500,000—and conservative estimates at the Capital express the belief that six or seven million workers will be unemployed within the next few months, during which time production is also in line to decline. If there is a boom era looming in the skies there is no noticeable evidence of it in Washington, D. C. Prices aren't helping the general situation. Neither are wage increases.

What this country needs most is dependence upon our old-fashioned Democracy, plus relief from the job of saving a lot of nations throughout the World that were on their uppers before we took up their quarrels in 1917.

YES, TAXES WILL BE CUT

The Senate of the United States proves by record votes that there will be a general tax reduction law passed shortly. At the present time there is a good deal of speculation on Capitol Hill as to whether President Truman, who has opposed tax cuts, will veto the tax legislation when it is sent from Capitol Hill to the White House.

The present situation shows that both Houses of Congress are favorable to cuts on income taxes from 34¢ for low incomes to about 10¢ for large incomes. The President will be running straight up against public opinion through out the country if he vetoes the laws for which the Republicans will claim the credit for putting through Congress. Your Wash-correspondent believes that President Truman will not veto these measures when they reach his desk.

STRUGGLING AGAINST PARTISANSHIP

As we have said before one of the Best of our United States Senators is Harry F. Byrd of Virginia, and we think he is bending around to our belief that non-partisanship is the wisest course of all. According to Senator Byrd the Congress is moving forward and progressively on a bi-partisan foreign policy. In measuring the borders of such figures they must square with our "fiscal solvency," he said; adding: "It would seem that a bi-partisanship for retrenchment and economy should be the foundation stone on which to build our foreign policy."

Byrd thinks that the Republicans and Democrats should vote together for retrenchment and economy. Theoretically, at least, Byrd is on the right track.

NATIONAL FOOD SITUATION

Domestic food supplies for the late spring and summer will be as large as last year and retail food prices will continue substantially higher than in the summer of 1946 but are likely to be somewhat lower than in recent months. So says the U.S. Department of Agriculture. However, increases are expected for meat, lard, butter products and sugar.

Art Lewis Featuring 'Three Franks' Aerialists as Seaside Park Attraction

Performing fully 75 feet in the air, on a special rigging of their own design that is truly unique and different. The Three Franks, who will appear in a featured role at the SEASIDE PARK starting June 9th present a routine that is unequalled for sheer daredeviltry.

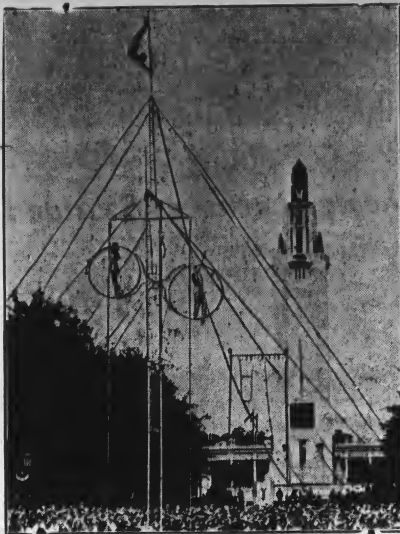

A breath-taking climax is presented towards the end when an extending perch pole at the very top of the rigging apparently breaks as one of the young lady members of the troupe is using it as a aid to her performance. This is only one of many other equally thrilling routines, presented by THE THREE FRANKS.

Two lovely young ladies and a man comprise the personnel of the act. Colorfully attired, they present an appealing picture as they are outlined against the sky going through a series of stunts. Another unique part of their equipment is two large hoops which revolve as two of the members of the troupe shift their weight, first one way and then the other. Trapeses are also included and the young ladies perform on these with all of the daring usually found only among performers who specialize in this art. The Three Franks have appeared in some of the most famous amusement centers in the country and have remained for extended engagements at many of them because of their tremendous popularity.

Decorate With Light

Lamps are more than to see by — they should cast a glow of warmth, and cheer, and friendliness.

The Shade's the Thing. An important complement to the lamp base — lending artistry to a handsome base and, if well planned for harmony, blends with and enhances your entire room.

Custom-made shades of synskin, parchment, homespun, silk, satin on parchment and metal foils, tailored or hand painted — exclusively yours.

CHICKEN THIEVERY

P. W. Ackiss, Commonwealth's Attorney, is so disturbed over the chicken thievery going on in the South end of the County that he resorted Monday in prosecuting five defendants in the Trial Justice Court, to an ancient statute which makes the theft of chickens valued at $5 or more a felony. Ordering all five to be held for grand jury.

While he was on the subject, he noted that the same statute also would cover a cow, steer, bull, calf, sheep, lamb, hog or goat. (There's been some fancy hog stealing in the same end of the county.)

R. E. Johnson, Identification officer for the Virginia Beach Police Department, said hundreds of chickens have been stolen from the Beach, Bay, Crocks and Pies in her temporary studio at Casino Ballroom.

Meet Butch—Pres., Treas., and Field Force of the One Man Odd Jobs Co., Uninc. Take a good look at him—for Butch is America.

Butch wants a bicycle. Lots of lawn and lemonade and baby-sitting lie between Butch and that bike, but we're helping him. He has energy, vision, and our national habit of working hard for what he wants. He's American business in miniature.

There are many names for Butch's philosophy. You can call it Free Enterprise, Opportunity, Democracy, or Capitalism, if you want.

But, whatever the name, America owes it much. For our most valuable natural resource lies in the ambition and initiative of Americans like Butch.

As great publications have grown from the dreams of young men with old hands, presses—and great industries from the products of grubby little cellar workshops—the electric industry had small beginnings, too. Like our own company. A few men with vision strung the first small lines. People with faith risked their savings. Better and better service, at lower and lower cost, created more and more jobs—and carried the benefits of electric living to more and more people.

Free enterprise and hard work will bring Butch and his bike together. They are what built America and the American way of life, which is the highest standard of living in the world. No nation on earth has found a satisfactory substitute for that combination.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

How to Go to Sleep

We were sitting around Bill Webster's parlor Friday evening and the talk turned to the best way of overcoming sleeplessness...like breathing real slow and deep, imagining that you weigh a ton, or simply throwing away the pillow.

The consensus favored counting sheep. But right away was the question: what kind of sheep? There were some votes for countr' Merinos, Shropshires, Oxford and Dorsets. Ed Mapes said he had best luck counting crossbreeds.

Finally, Bert Childers spoke up with his formula: A light snack and a mellow glass of beer at bedtime. Sort of puts you in the mood for quiet thoughts and peace of mind. Lets you relax...and "ho hum," off to pleasant dreams!

From where I sit, there's nothing like a temperate glass of beer to smooth away the creases of the day, relax a body, and pave the way for a good night's sleep. Try it, and see if I'm not right.

"Daddy, when will
it be tomorrow?"

"Well Sonny, tomorrow never really comes. When the time called tomorrow
comes, it will be today."

We on the Norfolk and Western believe that answer makes sense... for the railroad does things today. Tomorrow isn't soon enough.

Today, the N. & W. is working on a $12,000,000 improvement and modernization track and tunnel project on one of the busiest districts of its main line in West Virginia, which will increase operating efficiency, improve safety, and enable the railroad to handle more traffic.

Today, the N. & W. is making important changes in grades and track, and installing Centralized Traffic Control on its line between Portsmouth and Cincinnati, Ohio, at a cost of about $3,000,000; which will provide speedier, safer and more efficient movement of traffic on that district.

Today, the N. & W. is expanding its ocean terminal facilities by constructing one of the largest and most modern marl adise freight piers ever built, with new warehouses and a supporting yard at the Port of Norfolk, in order to handle foreign freight and intercoastal traffic with the greatest possible speed and efficiency. Cost — about $6,000,000.

Today, the N. & W. has on order a fleet of the latest streamlined luxury passenger coaches and the newest type roomette sleeping cars, which involves an expenditure of several millions of dollars.

These additions and improvements are some of the principal things the Norfolk and Western is doing today to provide better railway service. And there are many other things not so big, but important.

In short, this railroad and the Norfolk and Western Family are working tooth and nail to improve their service to, and their relations with, the public... today and every day.

State Highway Department Planning Super Highway From Beach to Norfolk

State Highway Commission plans to make the Virginia Beach Boulevard a super highway at an estimated cost of nearly $2,000,000 received the endorsement of a special Tidewater Automobile Association committee at a session with highway officials May 7 in Norfolk.

Projected improvement of the boulevard — Route 58 between Norfolk and Virginia Beach, listed as the second heaviest traveled highway in the State — includes not only its widening to four lanes but also the addition of parallel service and feeder roads to provide for greater safety and a smoother flow of traffic.

A right-of-way of 120 feet will be necessary for the new highway, as the "super" boulevard will, in reality, be four separate roads. The main highway will consist of two roadways, separated by a center strip. The service roads will run parallel to the main highway, one on each side connected to the boulevard at 2,000 foot intervals.

The service roads will provide space for parking and will eliminate a multitude of driveways emptying into the main stream of traffic.

The first lap of the project, highway officials announced, will be improvement of the section from the Norfolk City limits to the clover leaf overpass intersection with the military by-pass road. This project, for which $500,000 has been earmarked, will be undertaken this fall if present plans materialize. The remainder of the work is scheduled for completion in four years.

At the same conference, highway officials announced that the department recognizes the need for improving Route 13 (the military by-pass) from the traffic circle on the Waterworks Road to Little Creek. This improvement would consist of converting the present two-lane strip into a dual highway.

Highway representatives attending the conference included Sol Rawls, of Franklin Commissioner for the Suffolk Highway District; E. R.

Maes, senior highway engineer and director of the Location and Designing Division; his assistant, W. L. Brittle, Jr., and J. M. Hagan, Suffolk district engineer.

The T.A.A. was represented at the conference, held in the Monticello Hotel, by President G. Leslie Hall, A. O. Lynch, Robert F. Baldwin, Jr., Irving B. Kline, John B. Dye, W. Ludwell Baldwin — members of a special committee appointed by the Norfolk-Portsmouth board on April 24 — and Managing Director J. T. Timmons.

In attendance also were C. W. Grandy, president, and W. S. Harney, manager of the Norfolk Association of Commerce.

Garden Club Holds Final Meeting

The final meeting of the Princess Anne Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. Hallie Carlisle Old, "OldTom," Lynnhaven, Monday, June 9th. Yearly reports were presented by Miss Elizabeth Gregory Hill, president and chairman of standing committees.

Plans were made for the coming year, included in which will be the annual rose show, discontinued during the war years and to be resumed next May and held at the Cavalier Hotel.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Raymond Pritchard, Horticulture Chairman, a flower show was held. The exhibits by members of the club consisted of lilies, roses, perennials, annuals and potted plants. At the conclusion of the meeting tea was served by the hostess.

Legion Auxiliary To Meet June 16 At USO Club

The regular meeting of Unit 113 Princess Anne County American Legion Auxiliary will be held June 16 at the USO Club. This will be the last meeting until September.

Therefore all things whatsoever you would that men should do to you, do is the law and the prophets. —Matthew 7:12

Masons to Lay Cornerstone for Building on Sat.

Appropriate ceremonies will be held Saturday afternoon, June 14, at the cornerstone laying of the new Masonic Temple at 20th and Arctic Avenue.

At 2:30 P. M. a parade will form at 16th and Pacific Avenue and proceed east to Atlantic, along Atlantic to 28th, then to Arctic and to 20th Street, the site of the new building. All uniformed units of the Khedive Temple in Norfolk, about 150 strong including the band, will participate in the celebration, along with representatives from the 34th and 35th Norfolk and Portsmouth districts and the 56th, Virginia Beach, district.

Cornerstone Laying

The laying of the cornerstone is a ritualistic affair and will follow the customary lines of procedure. Besides John Bell, Worshipful Master, and officers of the local lodge, other celebrities who will attend will be Clarence D. Freeman, of Portsmouth. Past Grand Master of the Lodge of Virginia, T. Penn Coleman, of Norfolk, Past Grand Master and Rudolph Cook, of Portsmouth, Present Grand Senior Deacon.

Glenrock League Plans Day of Celebration

The Glenrock Civic League will celebrate its twenty-fifth anniversary on Saturday, June 14th, at the League Building. This is one of the oldest civic leagues in the State. There will be games and athletic events in the afternoon, with prizes for the winners. Refreshments will be sold all afternoon.

In the evening from 5:00 to 7:30 an old-fashioned Princess Anne chicken and ham dinner will be served.

After dinner speakers will be some of the officials of Princess Anne County.

The events are scheduled to begin at 2:30 P. M. The public is invited to join in the festivities.

Summer Schedule Announced at Star Of Sea Church

The summer schedule of masses at the Star of the Sea Catholic Church will begin June 15 with four masses: 6:45, 7:15, 10:15, and 11:15 a.m. The mass on week day mornings will be discontinued until June 21 due to the absence of Father Brennan who will attend Priests Retreat, Holy Name College, Washington, D. C.

The 9:15 mass on Sundays for service men will continue, Father Brennan announces.

Inasmuch as the paramount question for discussion among the residents and guests of the Beach wherever two or three or more are gathered together seems to be parking meters, the NEWS will publish, until the vote is taken, this small column each week giving voice to public expression.

Anyone wishing to be heard on the subject through this column will be given space, providing each statement sent in is signed by the person sending it in. We were able to reach only a few this week.

Leo Billey, of Billey's, says: "Meters are, from my own business point of view, good. My customers can find a place to park in front of my place of business. I am definitely opposed to them on the dead-end streets at the ocean front."

Mr. Edward Church, Bank of

Mrs. Branch, leader of the Oceana Troop, 201, announces that her troop will meet the first and third Tuesday of each month during the summer season.

Red Cross Class In Swimming To Start Soon

Miss Pear Day, executive secretary of the Princess Anne chapter of the Red Cross announces the organization of a beginners class in swimming.

The class will be organized after June 20 and will be open to adults and children.

Frank D. Shean, owner of the Casino Park has offered the facilities of the pool each evening between 6 and 8 p.m. and classes will be instructed by a qualified Red Cross instructor, in water safety.

Miss Day further said that the size of the class will be limited and advises all interested persons to call Red Cross headquarters 938, and register.

CIVIC LEAGUE TO MEET

The South Virginia Beach Civic League will hold the June meeting in the W. T. Cooke School auditorium on Monday, June 16 at 8 p.m.

If Virginia Beach decides to go forward, it can accomplish the job but, first, the people must make up their minds as to what they want to do.

'News' to Carry Public Opinion Poll

Virginia Beach: "I have no comment."

James Kontopoulos, Normandine Restaurant, "I want what is best for the town. Personally they give me a quicker turnover in my restaurant."

W. F. Crockett, Bayne-Roland and Beach Theatres, "What I have to sell takes 2 hours, however, I am willing to give anything a fair try."

Charles Forbes, Forbes Candies, "My total objection is that meters have no place in a summer resort."

Wm. Meredith, McEdith Drug Co., "I don't like them and feel that guests of the Beach should be given first consideration, but meters have kept Pacific Avenue across from the bus station free from 24-hour parking and allowed our customers an opportunity to park and come in the store."

Forbes Trafton, Trafton-Chal-

County Officials Find no Opposition For Aug. Primary

Princess Anne County officials file for reelection with apparently no opposition, unless August 5th brings out some independent candidates. They are: Sidney S. Kellam, county treasurer; Paul W. Ackles, Jr., Commonwealth's attorney; D. J. Vaughn, sheriff; W. Russell Hatchett, commissioner of revenue; Harry B. Davis, county member of the Virginia House of Delegates, and Ben T. Gunter, Jr., of Accomac, who represents Princess Anne as well as Accomac and Northampton counties in the State Senate. All stated their intention to run for the offices which they have held for the past term. Certification of the candidates as nominees of the party was expected to take place in a call meeting of the Princess Anne Democratic Executive Committee, called by W. J. Hudgins, chairman.

Supervisors Have Opposition

Two of the five supervisors will face opposition at the primary election. They are Chairman M. C. Mansfield, a member of the board for 20 years, whose seat as representative of the Blackwater District is being sought by Horace Shirley, and D. Y. Malbon, a member of the board from Seaboard District, who is being opposed by George A. Wilson.

Hudgins has four years remaining on his present term as clerk of court and is the only constitutional officer not affected by the primary.

Other supervisors, whose terms are expiring, but like the constitutional officers, will be certified as nominees of their respective districts are E. I. Herick, Kempsville; L. H. Vaughan, Pungo, and W. H. Maher, Lynnhaven.

Three of the unopposed officers, Kellam, Ackles and Davis, are rounding out sixteen years (four terms), while Hatchett is completing his first four-year term.

Vaughn was appointed to the office of sheriff about four years ago succeeding Guy Salmons following the latter's resignation.

Blair Eubanks to Conduct Broadcast From Casino Park

Council Agrees to hold Referendum on Meters

A call meeting of the Street Committee of the Town Council for Friday, June 6, turned out to be a call Council meeting, with Mr. Murray and Mr. Patton absent, presided over by Mayor Warfield Leake. It was understood that the meeting was called primarily for members of the street committee however, upon realization of the importance of the subject for discussion and the interest stimulated, Mayor Leake stated that the entire council should be present and requested each member to attend.

The meeting originally called for the USO building was shifted to the Town Hall because of dance reservations at the club. Due to the overwhelming crowd which attended the meeting the Town Hall was incapable of holding the number and in spite of the loud speaker installed there on the outside of the building were unable to hear. Finally the meeting adjourned to the auditorium of the W. T. Cooke school building and when the meeting was called to order few vacant seats were left.

In reply to a request that members of the Better Business Association be solicited as to an opinion on the desirability of the parking meters, Frank Shean, president, replied by letter that the constitution and by-laws of the Association prevented it from making the survey and that it was his understanding that according to contract were to be operated on a six months trial basis and would be removed by the Dual Parking Meter Company, the manufacturers, if proven unsatisfactory.

Mayor Leake recognized various members of the assembly and gave them the floor for expression on the points for and against the operation of the meters.

For a time the council appeared adamant to the demands to abolish the meters, voting unanimously (the four members present) in favor of the motion by H. A. Holt, Jr., "that they stay just as they are" until the next regular election, the Democratic Primary, August 5.

It was at this juncture that Gerould M. Rumble, council for the Hotel Association, advised that a special election could be held in 30 days, asserting that in the interest of fair play considering the opposition to the meters, the question should be settled as soon as possible. R. E. Derringer, president of the hotel association urged an immediate referendum of the townspeople on the meters and declared that meanwhile the instruments should not be operated, pointing out that by August 5 the resort season will be half over. He asserted that the meters were criticized by hotel guests and reminded the council that while the hotels pay only one-third of the tax revenue, they brought people to the Beach and enabled other merchants, responsible for the remaining two-thirds of the town's income, to do business.

After one of the most heated discussions in the history of the town the four council members present Mayor Leake exercising his privilege not to cast a vote unless a tie vote was cast, did not vote overrode objections of the approximately 400 residents of the community in attendance and voted not to abandon the meters.

However upon further discussion Mr. Holt was made the first person to let the meter's demand be conceded half of Mr. Rumble's motion and agreed that the special vote should be taken but remained immovable as to the continued operation of the meters until the vote could be taken. This vote was rushed through and passed without further opportunity of discussion from the floor.

Frank Booker, operator of the Courtney Terrace Hotel, called for a resolution of censure and rebuke to the town body for ignoring the wishes of the town people. Mr. Booker stated that the resolutions would be prepared by

Mr. Rumble and would be presented at the next meeting of the Town Council. Earlier in the meeting he asked the audience to "come up and sign one of our petitions" after the meeting urged those present to be sure to pay their poll tax, adding that "a slip of paper is the only thing a politician can understand."

R. Lee Pace, Norfolk realtor & a resident of Virginia Beach, was the only spokesman for the meters. Mr. Pace took issue with Mr. Booker but his statement that "the question of parking meters has nothing to do with politics", brought roars from the crowd. Mr. Pace stated that in his estimation the meters deserved a chance.

Mrs. Vivian Hodgson, of the Breakers Hotel, Mr. James Jordan, Jr., Joseph I. LaGiglia and Patric B. McGinnis, of the Norfolk Southern RR. were among the audience to be heard against the operation of the meters.

Special Election

The special election, it was learned, would require an intervention of 30 days, at least, under present statutes and, at best could not be set for earlier than July 7, providing other legal requirements are met.

Financial Operation

It is understood by the contract that the meters will cost $60.00 per unit of 100 or more meters. Twenty five per cent of the revenue to be retained by the town and seventy five per cent to go to the Dual Parking Meter Company until such time as the meters are paid for. They are to be financed only through the operation of meters and are installed on a six months trial basis. Should they not prove satisfactory the company agrees to remove them within 15 days after notification and remedy any damage to property caused by installation. 500 meters have been ordered. The contract calling for "100 more or less" and a majority of the 500 has been installed and are in operation.

swaying the course of government does not insure good government except it be the voice of a well informed and well intelligent people."

If you want to express your opinion on any questions, intelligently, tolerantly and briefly, the columns of the NEWS are open to
you. But, above all, be brief.

WHO IS BOSS OF VIRGINIA BEACH?

H. Warfield Leeke is Mayor of Virginia Beach and THE NEWS wishes to applaud him in his earnest effort to function in behalf of the best interest of the community in spite of town and county office holders who apparently endeavor to override and over rule his efforts to uphold the dignity and duties of his office -
the office to which this same body called him.

The recent demonstration relative to parking meters speaks for itself. The Town Attorney, upon being questioned at the meeting
June 6, stated that a referendum was a legal procedure to determine the will of the people. The four councilmen present (P. F.
Murray and Wm. Patton being out of town) voted unanimously to hold the special vote. Mayor Leeke authorized the town attorney to proceed immediately with the necessary legal steps.

As we go to press nothing has been done and in the words of the own attorney (we quote) "I don't know what's going to be done -
I all depends on what the council wants."

The Mayor authorized the procedure! The Town Attorney says the wishes of the council must be listened to!

This situation is indeed one for serious consideration by voters of the Town of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County.

A PRICELESS PRIVILEGE AND A RESPONSIBILITY

Virginia Beach citizens will have opportunity within the next few weeks to exercise a responsibility and a privilege which exists only in a free country—the right to cast a vote. The first opportunity will be presented when the special referendum will be held relative to the already installed parking meters. This delayed action on the meter question should give all residents,
hotel operators and business firms time to think the matter
through and without snap judgment be able to vote, in an intelligent manner, their convictions as to what is best for the community.

The second vote came at the Democratic Primary in August.
If we would be well governed we must always be on the alert to assure the election of honest, courageous and competent public officials. "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." Don't let anyone say:

"Politics we bar,
They are not our best;
On the whole we are Not intelligent."

REASON TO BE GRATEFUL %

The contributions of medical science to the welfare of the American people have occurred gradually over many years. Some of them have been little-publicized, and are not known as widely as they should be.

The New York Times recently ran an editorial on the Centenary of the American Medical Association. It observed that it had disagreed with some of the Association's policies. But, it pointed out, "during the long decades
when the government was indifferent to the quality of food and drugs and the patent medicine man was in his heyday, the Association was a bulwark of protection. Quacks were pursued, educational standards were raised,
drugs were appraised, hospitals
and schools were approved or disapproved, a dozen first-class medical publications . . . were made indispensable purveyors of knowledge, nostrums were exposed as the frauds that they were, fads were ridiculed. For all these blessings the public has reason to be grateful."

"The Association, as the principal an oldest medical organization of its kind, has been the leader in this work. Many groups have aided. The result is the high standard of health enjoyed by the American people. Medicine has fully realized and accepted its grave responsibilities to the country. Its work is never-ending—and its achievements grow with the passing years."

THE FORCES OF FREEDOM

It is estimated that there are more men under arms now than shortly before the Second World War. Save in the real peace anywhere on earth. Violence, disorder, oppression—these are the symbols of peoples everywhere are being limited and destroyed.

The position of the United States in this ark and dangerous time is clear. We, with a handful of allies, none of whom are economically or militarily powerful, are the last citadel of individual freedom. With few exceptions, the English speaking world alone still maintains and respects the basic rights of man—and even in that world there are ominous signs of weakening. The American government, in its dealing with the others powers, is the leader of the forces of freedom against the force of darkness and the total state.

The duty of the United States is equally clear. To put it in a phrase, this duty is to maintain our strength. And strength can be divided into two different and distinct classifications. There is military strength—the strength of force. Much as Americans hate war as a thought of war, we must maintain this, in the interest of self-preservation.

Second and still more vital.

READING & WRITING

If you've ever been under the spell of the figures and the moon-cane and the winds of the West, you'll find plenty in "The Big Sky" by A. R. Guthrie, Jr., a novel about that "raw, vast, lawless land," as it was in the 1870's and 40's.

The central character is Boone Canfield, schoolboy by the wilderness in the business of survival. He has been headstrong from the beginning. At the age of seventeen, we see him climbing his father with a sick of firewood and fleeing his home in Kentucky.
Thirteen years later he returned from the high mountains. Some thought he was an Indian, and with reason. His hair was in Indian braids, he wore Indian clothes. He had married an Indian squaw. His face was swarthy and weather beaten. He even talked in gutturals.

A. R. GUTHRIE
Not an Indian characteristic, however, was his quick murderous rage. People said he'd as soon kill a man as look at him. In the end, it was this uncontrollable temper that brought down the wrath of the law. "The Big Sky" is specially recommended by the Book-of-the-Month Club.

In "The Road to Music," Nicolas Slonim-sky tells of some curiously realistic touches which some musicians have thought up for their compositions. In one ultra-modern piece called "The Noise," built the composer, whose name reads the unquestioned, includes a special part for a cat's meow, to be produced by a live cat pulled by the tail! The piece, however, was never performed for fear that the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals might have something to say about such unmusical treatment of cats!

In the early days of Soviet Russia, composers went in for some particularly unconventional themes, says Mr. Slonimsky. The Soviet composer, Dmitri Shostakovich,
wrote an opera called "The Nose," built around a story about an army major whose nose mysteriously vanished while he was being shaved in a barber shop. Happily, it returned after a number of curious adventures. Among the unusual effects in the score, is an orchestral sneeze, hiccoughs on the harp, and a chorus of eight janitors singing eight different advertisements.

There is the kind of inner strength which only a free people can possess.
It is the heart and soul of a nation and its institutions. It is a nation's greatest resource in time of trial. And it rests upon the proposition that the rights of the individual are inviolate.
So long as we have this, we shall be ready to meet whatever the coming years bring.

WHAT IS FREEDOM OF INFORMATION?

Clear-headed executives of press organizations seem to think it is safe to agree that international peace and security will not be helped by any effort to broadcast
so-called American propaganda to foreign countries. On the other hand, our best journalists favor absolute freedom of information and news of the kind distributed through newspaper organizations.

In other words, the United States Government has no need to propagandize at home or abroad, or to color the news. We don't have to tell them how good we are. When we tell Europe, Asia and Africa the news of our country, that is all there is to it.

WHAT DO YOU KNOW?

A current report from Washington says that there is a cut-back of nearly 100,000 workers in non-durable goods industries at the present time.

Everything indicates that vet-

CHASING COMMUNISTS

The lower House of Congress passed unanimously a bill designed to prevent Communists from getting into the United States
thru the use of fraudulent pas-ports. It seems incredible—but it is true—that America is infiltrated with Communism.

Of course we wouldn't give the matter so much attention if the Government at Moscow would become an honest permanent member of the United Nations. Secretary of State Marshall is doing his best to improve the situation with Russia. But he doesn't pusytyoot any about it. He exploded the other day and said he wanted it understood that he inherited this "dirty mess." But he declared that he will clean it up.
Let up hope that we are reading
the signs correctly in reporting that General Marshall is getting tough.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Here's to
the Women-Folk!

There's a line at the heading of the Women's Column in my paper
that reads:

"Women through the years have stood keepers of the flame..."

Pretty easy to see what it means;
whether it's the flame on the hearth,
or the candle in the window, or the feeling of woman that surrounds a home.

It's the women who are guardians of the things we cherish about homelife—who are tolerant of aches on the rug; the rings a glass of beer can have on tobacco; or the comfortable but too-worn chair

that we can't bear to throw away.

From where I sit, these little satisfactions become more and more important in this world of strife and change. Simple things coming from a mellow place; a glass of beer; a comfortable chair before the fire. And I'd like to salute the housewives—"keepers of the flame"—whose tolerance and understanding helps preserve them!

Flying Hartzells New Attraction At Seaside Park

The presentation of three daring young men (and in this instance accompanied by an attractive lady partner) may seem like old stuff. But the Flying Hartzells, who will appear in a featured role at the Seaside Park on June 18 have added enough innovations of their own to an aerial routine that they now begin their performance where others customarily left off.

To begin with, the Hartzells have keyed their performance to split-second timing with the results that one thrilling stunt follows another, usually with all four members of the troupe participating.

One of the male members of the act somersaults from a raised platform to the safety of the waiting hands of a fellow performer who never stops swinging through the air. The attractive girl member of the troupe leaves her flying trapeze to soar gracefully through the air, bypassing a fellow performer traveling in the opposite direction, and catch the hands of a partner.

THE FLYING HARTZELLS

The gracefulness of the performance is the result of perfect synchronization, and the routine, if it could be continued indefinitely, would have the exactness of Naval Observatory Time.

A minimum of guy wires and surplus equipment provides for an unobstructed view by the audience. Even so the latter will have to be wide-awake to catch all of the stunts since the action presented by the Hartzells resembles a lobsing tennis ball in a championship match.

This daring attraction was secured by Art Lewis, the nation's foremost booker of thrilling acts.

Buddy Myers Band Returns To Casino Park in June

Buddy Myers and his orchestra are coming to Casino Park to play in Marine Garden & Ballroom for a limited engagement with his new band picked from a select group of musicians, to give added dance pleasure to the patrons he so ably entertained last season for manager Frank D. Shean of Casino Park.

Buddy Myers and his band will be on hand to bring that danceable music to those who like to dance to sweet society music. His return is expected to bring his fans from the Tidewater area as it did last year.

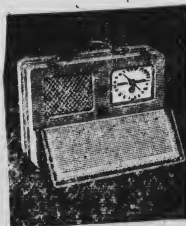

Starting June 11 to June 24 Myers and his band will be seen every evening (except Sunday night) in Marine Garden at 15th & Atlantic Ocean front.

after extended throughout any

Annual Regatta at Cavalier Sunday

Final plans are shaping up for the annual regatta to be held on Linkhorn Bay, Sunday, June 22. Rufus Kight manager of the Cavalier Yacht and Country Club announces.

The sailing races are held under the auspices of the Cavalier Hotel and Cavalier Yacht and Country Club and open to any one sailing a Hampton class sail boat in the Tidewater area.

Herbert N. White, long associated with boating in the Norfolk area and a writer of many articles for boating magazines, is assisting Mr. Kight in arrangements. Other members of the racing committee are Garland Miller, Dinwoody Atkinson, James Wolcott and Herbert Terry.

Two Races
There will be two racing events. The warning gun will sound at 10 a.m. and at 2: p.m. trophies will be awarded to 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winners and this year a challenge cup will be awarded. This cup will be a large silver trophy cup which will be a perpetual challenge cup and will remain in the Cavalier Yacht and Country Club with the high point winner each year.

SkI Exhibitions
Mr. Kight states that increased interest in the water skiing has been indicated by the additional number of guests present at the exhibitions each Sunday afternoon, on Linkhorn Bay adjacent to the Club. Jonnie and Glenn Kirkpatrick, professional artists in water skiing are instructing at the Club and will put on their exhibition this Sunday afternoon at some time between the start and finish of the sailboat race.

Entries
As yet there has been no indication of the number of Hampton which will race. In the past few years increased interest has been shown in this particular class of racing boat due largely to the fact that they were designed by a native of Tidewater Virginia. Last year's race brought out twelve entries and Mr. Kight says at least that many are expected to enter the race next Sunday.

Kappa Delta Sorority to Meet June 26th

Mrs. H. O. Brown, former National Secretary and Alpha Province Alumnae officer, Mrs. E. R. Harden, Jr., Mrs. J. Goodenow Tyler, J. Mrs. E. C. McCleskey and Miss Betty Mae Smith, local members of the Kappa Delta Sorority, will be hostesses at the Golden anniversary convention of sorority to be held 26-30 at the Cavalier Hotel. A special train will be made up in Chicago and will arrive at the Cavalier Hotel at 8 a.m. June 26, and will bring the largest number of convention attendants.

Kappa Delta Sorority was founded at what used to be Virginia State Normal School, now State Teachers College, Farmville, Va., on October 23, 1897. Two living founders are Mrs. Arthur White, nee Sara Turner of Norfolk, whose daughter is Mrs. Tony Jordan; of Virginia Beach and a Kappa Delta from Hollins College. Mrs. James Southall Wilson formerly Julia Taylor of Charlottesville is the other living founder.

The sorority now has chapters in 100 colleges and universities and is a member of the National Panhellenic Conference. There are 72 college chapters, founded in Virginia. Its national philanthropy work is work for crippled children. The support of five beds at the Crippled Children's Hospital, Richmond, Va., was selected in 1921 in honor of the sorority's founding in Virginia.

Kappa Delta established a student loan fund 31 years ago and to date has loaned more than $91,000 to members. During the second World War, it gave paid up alumnae memberships to all members serving with the armed forces and in one year gave eight complete ship libraries plus 2,000 additional books to the American Merchant Marine. It also gave magazine subscriptions for three years to 500 USO Clubs. An outgrowth of the sorority's work was a rehabilitation fund which aided members who had been confined to enemy prison camps. Some of this fund is now being used for reconstruction work in the Philippines by members who have returned to work with the natives.

There will be a chapter officers training school directed by Miss Lanier, an introductory dinner on opening night will be followed by a reception given by the national council, Miss Olga Achenbach, Plainfield, N. ## County To Have New Weekly Paper In Fall of Year

Ben Wahrman, Richmond news paper man and former resident of Virginia Beach and Norfolk, has announced plans for a new weekly newspaper in Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach.

Operating under the name of "The Virginia Beach Sun" Mr. Wahrman said the publication "will be a non-partisan, friendly, country weekly, designed to give residents of the beach and the county the news and views of their neighbors. We do not intend to take political sides, nor to engage in controversies of any kind. We will publish a newspaper, pure and simple, not a scandal sheet or a political organ."

Kellam Secretary

Mr. Wahrman will serve as editor and publisher of the new newspaper as well as president of the Virginia Beach Publishing Co. which will operate the paper and a printing plant. Other officers will be Tom Utterbeck of Richmond, executive vice-pres.; Sidney Banks, vice-president and treasurer and Richard Kellam, secretary.

Mr. Wahrman has had newspaper experience since 1931 when he joined the staff of the Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch. From 1934 to Feb 1936 he was associated with the Virginia Beach News in an editorial capacity.

Mrs. Wahrman is the former Ross Lee Batten of Virginia Beach.

In addition to these scholars members will be: Joyce Joyce Etheridge, reeds Senior Club, Audrey Humphries, Co-A Marie Blackmore, Delores Lupton, Kempsville Senior Club, Lankford Malbone, Creeds Senior Club and Donald Bishop, Oceana Senior Club.

Immediately preceding the short course, will be the 4-H All Star conference June 27 to June 29, over which Ned Crawley, of the English department at Hampden-Sydney College and big chief of the All-Star organization, will preside. Only 300 of the State's 1,200 All Stars can be accommodated at this year's conference; which will celebrate the 25th anniversary of the organization. All Stars are selected for leadership and outstanding project work in 4-H clubs, and highlighting the short course will be the choice and initiating of new All-Stars.

Attendance at the annual short course will be limited to 600 older boys and girls selected by county Extension agents from Virginia's 40,000 4-H members. The short course theme this year will be "Leadership Training and Building for Tomorrow's Citizenship." The program will include an address by Dr. E. H. Shinn, USDA, and discussions by Mrs. Ben Wallis, Sweet Briar College, and Dr. M. L. Moffett, Radford Teachers' College.

CROCKETT ANNOUNCES JULY 2 OPENING DATE OF NEW THEATRE

W. F. Crockett, manager of the Bayne, Roland and Beach Theatre announces the opening of the Beach Theatre, 25th and Atlantic Ave., on July 1 at 8:30 p.m. when patrons and friends in Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County are invited to attend the opening ceremonies. Mr. Crockett said that the building will be open for inspection and guests will have an opportunity to meet the various people connected with its construction and operation. Several short subjects will be shown which will permit an inspection of the "vice" of the theatre and the projection.

The formal opening of the theatre, Mr. Crockett said, will be July 2 at 3:30 p.m. when the first picture "The Yearling" will be shown.

Completely Modern

The theatre is the third business enterprise now in operation in the Building. Tailored Togs was the first completed, then the Forbes Candies opened its doors.

Modern in every appointment, and completely air conditioned, the theatre which has been under construction for two years has a seating capacity of approximately 1200. Concealed lighting and colored murals complete the artistry of the building.

The lounge leading to the lobby seats carries out the Williamsburg design in draperies and furniture, which were put in by Cofe's in Norfolk. Powder rooms are on the lounge floor. The murals and other interior decorating was done by the Paramount Decorating Co. of Philadelphia. R. R. Richardson & Co. of Norfolk were contractors for the building which is of Virginia Greenstone, and black marble. Vernon A. Moore & Co. of Norfolk and Bud Boudini, of Richmond associate architects, designed the structure.

Pupils of Florian Harrington On Local Broadcast

Increased interest is shown in the Saturday morning broadcast given from the ball room at Casino Park, Ocean at 14th Street.

This program is sponsored by Mary Jane Bred, Casino Park, and the Virginia Beach Bowling League and is under weekly direction of Mrs. Alice Brewer White of WTAR.

Saturday, June 14, Blair Eubanks, WTAR Sports Announcer, was master of ceremonies in the presence of Mrs. White who was attending a special broadcast in New York.

For the most part this program is entirely un rehearsed as juvenile members of the audience are called upon to sing, play or just answer questions. This is a child's program and all children in the beach or in the County are invited to come, bring their parents and participate in the program which is broadcast right from the stage in the Casino ballroom over WTAR.

Highlighting the program of June 14 was a short sketch by players of "The Pinnocchio Theater of the Air", students of Mrs. Florian Felote Harrington of Norfolk. The mistress of ceremonies was Trudy Ann Feld, whose beautiful speaking voice (along with her poise and charm) announced: "If you have ears, you are invited to come and listen. The longer the ear the more you'll hear." As the play unfolds others of the cast are introduced as follows: Lois Baker, Dick Tatem, Florian Francis Harrington, Mary Elizabeth McDow, Sandra Cohen and Elaine Hersberg.

A GOOD SCHOOL BUS RECORD

Virginia's public school year is ending with no school bus disaster of consequence. For this we may all be grateful and we may attribute it to better school buses, the replacement of dangerous vehicles and the ability to repair failing transportation due to war-born shortages.

The record is not entirely bloodless, however, because only a few days ago, a child in Henry County was struck by a car after she had alighted from a school bus, to cross the highway, and she is now in a hospital.

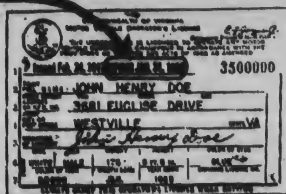

The Virginia Law which forbids the passing of a halted school bus on a Virginia highway—no matter in what direction the motorist may be traveling, is sound and prudent. It may be ultra-conservative but it is reasonable law. The great difficulty, however, is the enforcement of such a statute among total strangers to Virginia who have never heard of coming to a full stop on approaching a school bus which has halted on the other side of the road, though most states have laws which forbid overtaking a halted school bus.

The state department of motor vehicles would do well to post on the state line, wherever any art-

PUBLIC MUST BE OBEYED

J. E. Jones
Washington, D. C. — For a great many years so-called "labor legislation" has been a political football and it has been treated as such until recently by the Administration and Congress of the United States. The Democrats nominated and elected Franklin D. Roosevelt four times because he carried the labor-vote in his pocket. BUT:

The wage workers, in and out of labor unions, revolted against the big labor bosses and helped elect a Republican Congress in 1946. Because workers found that the deluge of strikes ordered by the high-labor cliques cost the workers more than they got in their payroll envelopes for many months.

The House of Representatives passed a labor bill by a vote of 320 to 79 in the Public Demand to stop strikes.

That's the whole story, Reader, in a nutshell, regardless of what may, or might happen—Presidential vetoes, walkouts by miners strikes in Detroit automobile plants, slowing down of the steel industry—or anything else.

As for the politics involved the fact remains that the People made their position clear, and both branches of Congress, "with ears to the ground" declared by their record votes that "the Public Must Be Obeeyed."

Any comes into Virginia, some administrative notice warning tourist motorists of our unique school bus law.

Inasmuch as the paramount question for discussion among the residents and guests of the Beach wherever two or three or more are gathered together seems to be parking meters, the NEWS will publish, until the vote is taken, this small column each week giving voice to public expression. Anyone wishing to be heard on the subject through this column will be given space, providing each statement sent in is signed by the person sending it in. We were able to reach only a few this week.

In last week's NEWS we seem to have given the wrong impression in one comment on the parking meters. The comment made at a recent Lions Club meeting was made by a single person as a comment and was intended to mean that the subject was discussed at the general meeting of the club.

Lee Shelly: "I was one of the few who spoke in favor of parking meters at a meeting of the Better Business Association but since their installation there has been such a discrimination as to their locations that I have been forced to reverse my opinion."

THE NEWS: is of the opinion that the hotel group should have a great deal of bearing on the situation in as much as this is the group which makes it possible to have a town such as we have. Were it not for the hotels and cottages there would not be sufficient business to warrant the operation of various business activities on the Beach.

Clairborne Bryant: I feel that in view of the stand taken by the largest single industry in the community that anything done to substantially hurt them would have a direct effect on the prosperity of the entire community."

California Queens Appear at Seaside

rare combination of feminine beauty and daring, the California Queens, will afford many of the thrills that will be presented at the Seaside Park starting Monday June 23. The three young ladies and their male partner, who make up the personnel of the troupe, present one of the most thrilling aerial routines that has ever been devised.

Their rigging towers 100 feet into the air. On it are numerous gadgets used solely in assisting them to turn out their complicated aerial contortionistic and acrobatic routines.

At the top of the rigging is a slender pole whose appearance belies its strength. At its base is a huge circular ring of steel. Roman rings and mouthpieces are suspended from it and three of the girls utilize these props in the presentation of one of their numbers. The wheel revolves at high speed throughout the performance.

Besides having a wealth of good looks the girls are all accomplished performers with more than their share of daring. They work rapidly in single specialties and in unison, providing continuous action on the lofty rigging. Their safety is entirely dependent upon their own confidence and ability for no safety devices, such as nets are used.

In addition to providing for numerous nerve-tingling thrills, the performance of the California Queens is a beautiful symmetry of motion.

Can't Break His Good Habits!

Bert Childers was saying, it's funny how so many of our wartime habits stick with us.

Bert likes plenty of butter on his bread, but even now he can't get over spreading it like it was scarce as hen's teeth. And as a war-worrier, Bert used to stick to a temperate glass of beer on time off; and he still holds fast to beer and moderation.

Same way with Bert's wife. She not only has no trouble saving used fats, and waste paper. She's learned from wartime necessity to save every single thing that might possibly be used again.

From where I sit, it's mighty good that so many of these common-sense habits like thrift and moderation have stayed with us. Because they belong in America—along with tolerance, and mutual respect for one another's rights. They're habits that have helped to make this country strong and neighborly and free.

NEW BUILDINGS AND BUSINESSES MAKING 31st ST. POPULAR CENTER

WASHATERIA

An innovation for Virginia Beach is the WASHATERIA, owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wolff. This new laundry service is located in the Murden building on 31st street and Baltic Ave. where 12 laundresses are in constant operation six days a week from 8:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m.

The process takes 40 minutes. An attendant places the clothes in the machine and the customer may wait, go shopping, swimming or anything she may wish while her clothes are washed rinsed and damp dried.

Mrs. Wolff, the former Dot Fisher, has been a resident of Virginia Beach for the better part of her life. Mr. Wolff, a Lt. Colonel with the Army Engineers with 24 months service in Burma was with the War Department, Dist. Engineers in Norfolk prior to the war and since being discharged from service he and Mrs. Wolff have made their home at the beach.

MARIE RICHARDSON

Marie Richardson has moved her lamp shade studio from the Coates Building to 31st and Pacific. In the new shopping center of the beach, Mrs. Richardson says that the enlarged quarters will permit the display of fine antique pieces of furniture, old and reproduction lamps, silver and other rare places to delight the antique lover. She will continue to specialize in custom made lamp shades and has increased her staff of artists to take care of individual needs. Mrs. Richardson will also make shades from the materials furnished by her customers if a special fabric is needed to harmonize with slip covers and drapes already in use.

Flying Squadron of Game Warden To Enforce State Law

The six-man "flying-squadron" of game wardens will go to work July 1 directly under the executive direction. This is the first time in history of the game warden in Virginia that there has been a mobile game law enforcement unit, subject to orders to go anywhere in the State at any time. These men will devote their entire time to game and fish work.

Three of the members of the squadron are State troopers but will go off the State payroll July 1 to assume their new duties.

Members of the flying squadron will work most of the time in pairs and will devote much of their efforts to educational work, but will be available at a moment's notice for mass assignment to any trouble spot. Spot-lighting of deer in the western counties, shooting of deer in rivers, flagrant violations of the trespass law, help with restocking operations both of game and fish and investigations of illegal fishing will probably be among these men's special assignments. Robert O. Halstead of Princess Anne County is a member of this squadron.

Sailing Regatta at Cavalier Country Club Big Success

Jack Vail of Norfolk, sailing in Rebel II, captured first place in the first and second races of the annual Hampton class sailing regatta Sunday, June 22 at the Cavalier Yacht and Country Club, with a total of 29 points.

Charles Nelms in Windward was second with 26 points and Chauncey Willis in Bware was third with 24 points.

Scoring for the regatta was based on the point system; one point for every boat beaten in each heat plus one point for the individual boat. In each heat Mr. Vail beat fourteen boats plus one point for his own boat in each heat giving a total of 30 points for the regatta.

After the races Mr. Herbert White presented the winners with first, second and third place trophies. As first place winner, Jack Vail will have his name placed on the Challenger Cup which will remain at the Yacht and Country Club.

In the first race of the regatta Jack Vail in Rebel II placed first, Skinny Holloway in Joyway, 2nd and Chauncey Willis in Bware won 3rd place. The second race resulted in Jack Vail, Charlie Nelms and Clay Gatewood, in that order.

A perfect sailing day with wind from the Northeast and brisk, brought out 16 boats and a large number of spectators on the laws of the Cavalier Club. Numerous boats of all descriptions were on the Bay to view the race from a closer vantage point.

Due to a misunderstanding the first race, which got under way at 10:30 was re-run in the early afternoon.

Water Skiing Exhibitions, Retraque, races, sailing exhibitions were put on by Joanne and Glenn Kirkpatrick, who have been giving lessons in the art of water skiing for several weeks.

Speed Boat Races
It is understood that plans are now under way for speed boat races some time in August.

County Board Meeting Deals Chiefly With Zoning Ordinance Changes

County Health Officer Makes Regular Report

Dr. William Y. Garrett, health officer of Princess Anne County reports an increase in activities in the County health work for May. Seven communicable diseases were reported with 166 visits by nurses to home in the county.

One hundred fifty seven patients received care in the clinic and immunization vaccines were given 77 children. One hundred eleven were examined by X-ray. A check up on 67 sewage disposal plants was made and 419 miscellaneous inspections were made.

Dr. Garrett further stated that during the summer season the enforcement of ordinances regulating sanitary practices of food establishments in the County becomes one of the most important activities of the health department. Unless extreme care is exercised in the preparation, storage and handling of food there is constant danger of the spread of disease.

When food establishments in Princess Anne County, including Virginia Beach are open the number will exceed 200. Less than half this number operate during the winter months. To assist in the local sanitation program during the seasonal increase the services of Mr. J. A. Gordon, Food Inspector, from the State Health Department have been secured. Mr. Gordon will spend one week of each month in Princess Anne County working solely in restaurant sanitation.

TB Association to Sell Balloons Here On July Fourth

Leading the fight toward better public health, the Princess Anne Tuberculosis Association is employing every modern weapon in an unrelenting campaign to completely eradicate tuberculosis. The members of the Association are not complacent over the progress that had been made in recent years but are employing new methods of conquering this preventable and curable disease.

During the past year, the Mobile X-ray Unit which is jointly owned with Norfolk County, has operated in different sections of the county taking chest X-rays of nearly 4,000 citizens. This is a good start but the association members will not be satisfied until every person over 15 years of age has a yearly chest X-ray. Finding tuberculosis early when it is more easily cured as well as preventing infection of others, is the secret if it is to be eradicated.

Most of the money used to fight tuberculosis comes from Christmas Seals but with its expanded program, the association finds it necessary to supplement the Annual Seal Sale. To do this, a Balloon Day will be held at all the beaches in Princess Anne County on July 4th. A large group of attractive young girls will handle the balloons and they will be up and down the waterfront with multicolored balloons, asking contributions for the Tuberculosis Association.

It is hoped that a spirit of good will and friendliness for the less fortunate will pervade the day and that the citizens will take the opportunity to assist in the county-wide tuberculosis program.

A FOURTH OF JULY HAZARD

"Time was, not so many years ago, when the morning newspapers on July 8th were characterized by casualty lists and detailed accounts of the deaths and serious accidents attributed to the unrestricted use of dangerous fireworks, 'toy pistols' and 'toy cannon'. It was the inevitable aftermath of the annual Fourth of July celebration. Thanks to wise legislation, this hazard has been outlawed in most jurisdictions. However, the Fourth of July danger remains, through the destructive agent now represented by gasoline," states Dr. I. C. Ruggin, State Health Commissioner.

"Inspired by a carefree spirit, motorists take to the roads, and under the spell of the moment, many throw caution to the winds. Therefore, some of them land in hospitals, other in funeral parlors. And the A. M. papers of July 8th, as usual, carry stories of those seriously injured or dead, because of 4th of July recklessness. So constant is this need less accident and death list that the National Safety Council can predict each year within a very slight margin the number of those who will be killed and seriously hurt on the highways over the holiday. This list runs into many hundreds.

"Thus it is seen that, while strictly speaking, crazy automobile operation on the highways is

HOW TO STAY YOUNG

A few enterprising ladies, such as Elizabeth Arden and Helena Rubinstein, have built very profitable businesses helping the American woman stay young, or at least continue to look young. Now comes Dr. George Lawton, an industrial psychologist, with a book for American business men on how to age successfully. His formula: variety of interests and activities. Dr. Lawton points to Howard Hughes, famed flyer, industrialist and movie producer as a notable example of a business man who will be forever young in outlook and accomplishment. This is because of Hughes' diversity of interests and his ability to take risks for the sake of constructive achievement. Hughes, now 41, produces movies, manufactures rockets for worldwide oil drilling, designs & builds planes, and invents safety devices for aircraft. Dr. Lawton's theories coincide with the recent analysis of William Benton, assistant secretary of State. Said Benton: "A man ought to change jobs every 10 years. He runs out of ideas and begins to rust if he doesn't." Do you agree?

not a public health concern, for practical purposes it resolves itself into a problem of conserving life and bodies, at that sense it logically comes within the jurisdiction of the public health official.

"Of course the Fourth of July is a grand holiday. It justifies historically and recreationally all the fun everyone can pack into it. But like all other good things, it should be handled with reasonable care. In so doing, it will pay everyone to include in that attitude the handling of that great asset of modern times—the automobile."

SHIP STRIKE

The big news seems to concern the American Merchant Marine, with 700 ships tied up by a CIO labor strike.

Most of the shipping concerns haven't even admitted, up to date, that they are doing a regular and orderly business, carrying passengers or freight. But it does seem that shipments of Cuban and Puerto Rican sugar were soaring when the "quit work" whistle sounded.

America's tremendous ship-loads ments of grain and coal to war-ravaged nations of Europe and Asia have been disrupted. Countries depending upon us for the necessities of life are involved.

Shipping strikes are always serious matters. Who would expect ship-owners would be compelled to buckle down to CIO union bosses, under all the present conditions and circumstances? It bodes the how these strikes continue hitting industries that are simply able to creep a-

Great Ricardo At Seaside Park

The Great Ricardo, the swaying marvel, who performs atop a 100 ft. pole while balancing and swaying has been engaged by the Seaside Park to appear starting June 30th.

Ricardo presents an unusually deft and clever exhibition of muscular coordination and skill. After climbing the slender pole, on which he performs, which is no mean feat in itself, Ricardo does a series of handstands, headstands and many other acrobatic turns on top of the high pole, bringing yells from the audience when he starts the sway of his pole at approximately a 50-degree angle, which would make one feel that the pole would snap within a minute. This feat alone brings tense moments to the audience as he stands on practically nothing and then goes through the same routine later on from a handstand.

As a fitting climax to his performance, Mr. Ricardo slides down the high pole with such lightning rapidity, stopping just before what appears to be an accident and that proves to be a work of art.

Money certainly seems to melt these days (and not from the heat either!) That's why I'm more grateful than ever for the values I find at the A&P... and the quality of everything is always dependable. Marketing there regularly is my pet economy. Try it! And try the money-saving suggestions below, too!

THIRTY THOUGHTS
To get almost twice as much juice as usual from a lemon, steep it in hot water a few minutes before you squeeze it.
To satisfy big appetites at small cost, choose ANN PAGE FOODS at your A&P. You'll find everything from ready-to-eat main dishes to easy-to-try desserts in this quality-famous family of products. And when you see the modest prices on all the ANN PAGE foods, you'll understand why they're called "The Thrifty 33."

To freshen stale rolls, sprinkle them with water, wrap in brown paper and warm in a hot oven.
LOTS FOR LITTLE
My favorite day is WOMAN'S DAY—that grand magazine you can get at A&P Stores and nowhere else. It's filled with new recipes, delightful menu suggestions, fashions and movie news, as well as fascinating fiction. I'd call it a bargain at five times the nickel it costs. What's more, WOMAN'S DAY saves me plenty with its budget-stretching ideas. Get a copy at your A&P. You'll love it!

CEREAL SWEETS
The nutty flavor of SUNNY-FIELD WHEAT PUFFS for the A&P is delicious in cookies made like this: Beat 8 egg whites with ¼ tsp. salt till foamy. Add ¼ cup sugar gradually, beating till whites stand in peaks. Beat in ¼ cup peanut butter. Fold in 2 cups SUNNY-FIELD WHEAT PUFFS and 2 tps. grated orange rind. Drop by teaspoonful on cookie sheet. Bake in moderate oven 375° F. about 12 minutes. Makes 3 dozen cookies.

WHEN YOUR NUMBER IS UP

There are too many great men these days who succumb to the suggestion that they are defying the lightning when they make needless journeys on airplanes. Evidently, that party of America's leading editors and publishers who volunteered to start on a trip around the world a few days ago felt a good deal like President Truman when he poo-hood those who pleaded with him not to take unnecessary airplane trips on account of the dangers involved. Mr. Truman replied that everything would be all right until his "number was up".

Nevertheless, the passengers in the trail blazing trip included these leading men and women: Thomas H. Beck, president of the Crowell-Collier Publisher Co.; Arwin D. Canham, editor of the Christian Science Monitor; Marshall Field III, publisher of the Chicago Sun; Roy Howard, president of the Scripps-Howard Newspapers; Paul Patterson, president of the Baltimore Sun papers; Mrs. Ogden Reid, president of the New York Herald-Tribune; and James G. Stahlman, president of the Nashville Banner.

Among the other passengers are Frank Gannett, publisher of the Gannett Newspapers; Paul Bellamy, editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer; Gardner Cowles, publisher of the Des Moines Register-Tribune; Oleta Culb Hobby, executive vice president of the Houston Post; Roger Lapham Mayor of San Francisco; J. Loy Maloney, managing editor of the Chicago Tribune; H. P. Moore, board chairman of Time-Life-Fortune; Ralph Nicholson, publisher of the New Orleans Item, and Francis H. Russell, director of public affairs of the State Department.

All we can do about it is wish the dare-devils a "happy and successful voyage."

To all who rendered any service or kindness or who sent flowers, gifts, cards, or expressions of sympathy, during the last illness and death of the late Miss Annie M. Holland, I extend my thanks and appreciation.

Last Year the N & W paid in Virginia

...to Towns and Counties

$688,051 in property taxes. Of this amount, $399,797 was used for the support of public schools in the 41 counties and 57 towns the railroad serves. The balance of $288,254 helped to pay the expenses of their governments'
various duties and services.

...to Cities

$351,395 in property taxes was paid by the Norfolk and Western into the treasuries of the 11 cities in which it operates. This money was spent for the support of city schools, courts, health, fire and police protection, and other municipal functions.

...to the State

$1,673,684 in taxes. This amount was paid into the general treasury of the State of Virginia.
A substantial part of it was allocated by the State to counties, towns and cities for schools and other local activities.

Thus, the Norfolk and Western paid a total tax bill in Virginia of $2,713,130 for 1946. These railroad tax dollars mean better schools . . . better police and fire protection
. . . better health . . . better streets . . . better parks and libraries—without adding to the individual tax load of other citizens.

The railroad pays its taxes and conducts its business entirely out of its own pocket. It neither receives nor asks outside aid. The Norfolk and Western is proud to be a citizen of the state and the communities along its line, and strives constantly to promote a better and greater Virginia.

Crazy Hat Wins Refrigerator!

One of those "Breakfast in the morning" radio shows came to Capitol City last week, and Sarrah Carey won first prize for wearing the craziest hat in the audience. It was a full-sized refrigerator! (The prize,
not the hat.)
"Glad them hats of hers paid off at last," says Ed, treating the whole thing like a joke. But you could see how proud of Sarrah.
From where I sit, there's another thing Ed can be proud of: the way he's put up with those hats of his—never a criticism; just as she's put up with Ed's pipe and the other little freedoms he enjoys.

They've got that refrigerator home now, stocked with beer; and we're going over tonight to drink a toast—not just to Sarrah's hats taking first prize . . . but to a happily married couple, who've learned to live with one another's differences in tastes—whether it's a taste for hats or beer!
